Welcome to the Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services Online Acquittal Support Information System (OASIS).

OASIS is a web-based system that is available to organisations funded by the Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services to provide a secure way to electronically required reports and documents to the department.

Each organisation requires at least two current registered members of the Executive Management Committee, or duly authorised officers designated to provide verification of reports to OASIS, these representatives are assigned with the NGO Approver role.

As the NGO Approver for your organisation you are able to:

- approve reports and documents that are required to be submitted to the department
- approve changes made to your organisation details
- view information pertaining to your organisation and services that are funded by the department
- access and view completed financial acquittals, performance reports and other documents relating to your funded services

As an Executive Officer of the organisation you are responsible for requesting additional (or changes to) NGO System Administrators for your organisation by sending an email to team@communities.qld.gov.au. For more information refer to the 'four steps to start using OASIS' document available under the Fact Sheets heading here.

Unauthorised access or inappropriate use of Communities OASIS may result in prosecution.
N.B. Do NOT use this system unless registered as a participant to enter the Online Acquittal Support Information System (OASIS) with the Department of Communities. The OASIS

OASIS Information Sessions
The Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services is using a web-based teleconferencing tool called WebEx to deliver OASIS Information Sessions to NGOs. WebEx enables the Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services to run the OASIS application online and allow a number of participants to view it and participate in interactive sessions.
To register for a live session contact your Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services representative.
